Chinese Communist Fleet Is Moving Toward Formosa

Nationalists Say Red Buildup Increases Threat

Warships May Help Blockade of Chiang's Offshore Islands

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Communist China is moving faster and heavier naval power toward the explosive Formosa Strait area, the chief military spokesman for Nationalist China said today.

The reported buildup of Red seapower is increasing the threat to Nationalist-held offshore islands, Rear Adm. Liu Hsiang-tai said. More Communist warships could be used to intensify Red efforts to cut off the Nationalist supply route from Formosa to the islands and would be needed to cover any invasion attempt against the islands.

Indications mounted on Formosa, meanwhile, that the Nationalists are preparing to bomb the Communist mainland if the Reds begin massive artillery or bombing attacks on Quemoy.

Units Moving In

Liu said in an interview, "Intelligence reports trickling in indicate the Communists are moving bigger naval units in from the northern area. Up to now they've used only smaller type torpedo boats against us."

The admiral said reports indicated the Reds were sending south from the Shanghai, Tsingtao and Yangtze River areas gunboats resembling the 300-ton Kronstadt and the 900-ton Riga class warships of the Soviet navy. The Red torpedo boats now in the strait are less than 100 tons, Liu added.

With both sides in the vest pocket war jockeying for position, actual shooting had slackened off.

The Communists gave no indication of carrying out last week's threat of redoubled bombardments however. Up to mid-afternoon, the Nationalist Defense Ministry had no reports of shelling since Friday, which was the lightest day since the Red shelling of Quemoy started two weeks ago.

Just-In-Case Bombing

The indications of just-in-case bombing preparations came after a top U.S. official in Washington said the complex of new Communist airfields near Quemoy would be bombed almost immediately if used for assaults on the Nationalist stronghold island close to the mainland.

The U.S. authority hinted Nationalist planes would do the job. But if the Reds try to carry out reprisal raids on Formosa or the Pescadores, the United States would be treaty-bound to protect them. The official said only conventional weapons — not nuclear bombs — were involved in the possible bombings.

The U.S. threat was matched by an unofficial one from Moscow. In the strongest Soviet denunciation of the West since the 1956 Suez crisis, Soviet newspapers and broadcasts indicated the Soviet Union and Red China may be about to join in some decisive action, diplomatic or otherwise.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda said any spread of hostilities over the offshore islands would provoke Communist retaliation throughout the Far East.

Western diplomats in Moscow sensed an approaching climax to the crisis as Premier Khrushchev cut short his vacation in the south to return to the Soviet capital. He told a visitor he was dealing with urgent matters, would stay in Moscow a few days, then resume his holiday.

BURGLARS GET $10,000 AT KROGER'S

Talent, Swim Suit Winners Picked

1959 Miss America Finals Are Tonight

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Miss America will be crowned tonight and start her year-long reign as holder of the oldest national beauty title.

Two Southern girls, Miss Alabama and Miss North Carolina, won in the third round of preliminary judging Friday night. They are among the 52 contenders for the fame and fortune that goes to the final winner of the Miss America pageant.

Miss Alabama, a rabbit's foot tucked inside her costume, won the night's talent competition with a song from the musical "South Pacific."

Miss North Carolina, whose favorite sport is swimming, was declared tops in the swim suit division by the 11 judges who watched her walk down the runway at Convention Hall. She is Betty Lee Evans, 18, of Greenville, N.C., who stands 5-5½, weighs 112 pounds and measures 34-21-34½.

Lee Thornberry, a black-haired beauty from Birmingham, Ala., left her rabbit's foot in her hotel room and sent her chaperone back to get it at the last minute.

The lucky charm was stowed away inside the loose fitting sailor suit she wore during a rendition of the song and dance "Honkeyton," performed by the character Nellie Forbush in the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical.

When her name was called as a preliminary winner, Miss Thornberry said she "just lost all control of myself."

"It was the same feeling I had when my mother bought my first pair of dancing shoes," she said. An only child, the 21-year-old Miss Thornberry is a senior at Birmingham-Southern College and automatically gets a $1,000 scholarship as a preliminary talent champion.

Daughter of Deacon

Miss Evans is the daughter of a deacon and elder at Red Oak Christian Church, named the National Rural Church of the Year in 1954. She herself is organist there.

In addition to swimming, the brown-haired Miss North Carolina likes singing, the piano and collecting stuffed animals.

Points gathered by the girls during the last three nights of preliminary judging will be totaled to select the 10 semifinalists who will be announced tonight.

Eisenhower Plans Confab On Integration

'Various Matters' To Be Discussed By President

(By The Associated Press)

President Eisenhower planned today to interrupt his vacation for a Washington conference on integration as the involved racial problem brought mounting tension in some sections of the South.

The President was scheduled to confer with Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers at the White House.

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, said only that they would discuss "various matters before the courts on the subject of integration."

The most pressing matter now before the courts is the impending U.S. Supreme Court ruling on whether integration at Central High School at Little Rock, Ark., should be started when classes open Sept. 15 or delayed 2½ years. Oral arguments before the court are set for Thursday.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas said Friday night he felt the feeling against racial mixing at Little Rock was much stronger and deeper than a year ago, and apparently was a result of the troubles at that time.

The governor said in a recorded interview from Washington that he would close Central High rather than obey any Supreme Court mandate to mix the races there immediately.

"If you have to use force to integrate, it means it cannot be done peacefully," he said. "I am unalterably opposed to forced integration."

Fairfield Annexation Petition Is Rejected

A petition seeking annexation of one and a half square miles of Fairfield Township to the village of Columbiana was rejected Friday by county commissioners because of an error in the description of the territory, Galen Greenstein, president of the board of commissioners reports.

The 116-name petition was filed last June with the commissioners. The territory comprises six quarter-sections immediately south of Columbiana.

Opponents at the hearing Friday argued that since the word "east" at one point in the description should have read "west," the description was incorrect and rendered the petition invalid.

A group in favor of the petition requested that it be amended to read correctly, citing cases where in such action was taken by commissioners of other counties.

On the advice of county prosecutor G. William Brokaw, the commissioners ruled that a new description must be drawn up and a new petition circulated.

Twenty-five persons attended.

Small Craft Have Been Warned

'Ella' Is Sweeping Down Texas Coast

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Tired tropical storm Ella moved gently into Texas today with intermittent downpours and swelling seas and squalls along the Texas Gulf Coast.

The U.S. Weather Bureau's 4 a.m. (CST) advisory, last planned on Ella, said, "Lower all warnings. Small craft along Texas and Louisiana coasts should remain in port until squalls and seas subside."

At least eight small towns had been evacuated as Ella moved toward the Texas coast and about 1,000 persons, including many tourists, left Mustang Island, about 16 miles from Corpus Christi.

The storm moved inland with little rumpus and at 4 a.m. (CST) was about 20 miles west of Corpus Christi. The Weather Bureau said winds 30 to 40 m. p. h. would continue along the Texas and extreme west Louisiana coasts to day and diminish tonight.

High tides along the coast also were expected to fall today, the Weather Bureau said.

Tides along the middle and upper Texas coasts were running near four feet and were expected to rise another foot. Earlier they had sent water over highways near the beaches.

The storm was expected to move inland near Corpus Christi and then over central Texas to the San Antonio area in the next two days. Rains of up to five inches were forecast.

At least eight small fishing and resort towns in the 200 miles of coast from Corpus Christi north to Galveston were either completely or partially evacuated.

Directly in the path of Ella lay a 12-county area with a population of almost two million. It has many industrial plants and oil and gas wells and fertile rice and cotton farms.

Icelandic vessels are making raids on trawlers, steaming in close to them as if to put on boarders to arrest the fishermen on poaching charges. When a British frigate races to the rescue, the Icelandic vessel goes off and applies the same threatening tactics against another trawler.

Iceland declared last Monday an extension of her territorial waters from 3 to 12 miles from the rocky headlands in order to protect her fishing grounds for Icelandic fishermen. Britain sent in the trawlers with Royal Navy protection to maintain her traditional fishing rights in the area.

Stolen Wrecker Used to Haul Safe From Store

Later Transferred to Truck; Deputies Making Investigation

Working in an early morning mist which aided their escape, bold thieves used a stolen auto wrecker to break the window at the Kroger Super Market on E. State St. Ext. and cart off a safe containing almost $10,000 in currency and checks, Columbiana County sheriff's deputies reported today.

The money represented Friday's store receipts.

Deputies James Miller and Howard Gray said the burglars used the wrecker and a length of chain to hoist the safe.

The thieves forced open the window with a crowbar, then put the chain to the safe and with the use of the wrecker pulled the 4,000-pound safe through the window, shattering the plate glass barrier.

Transfer Safe To Truck

With the safe dangling from the rear of the wrecker, the robbers headed east on Rt. 14 to the Butcher Road, the deputies discovered.

Residents living near the super market heard glass being broken around 5:20 this morning but failed to realize what had occurred.

The thieves transferred the safe from the wrecker to another truck on the Butcher Road at Weingart's Orchard, about six-tenths of a mile southeast of Rt. 14.

They drove the wrecker to a point on the Jersey-Ridge road where it was abandoned. They made their escape with the safe through a dirt road in the orchard, probably south to Rt. 558, the Franklin Road, the officers said.

An unidentified man had noticed the abandoned wrecker on the Jersey-Ridge road and notified the owner of the vehicle.

The tow truck, deputies said, was stolen earlier from the Penick Auto Wrecking shop on the S. Egypt Road.

Deputies Notified

Penick then notified Salem police who got in touch with the county sheriff's office.

The super market is just east of the city corporation limits.

Thirty-eight minutes later at 6:58 a.m., Salem Police Lieutenant Martin Lutsch and Patrolman Richard Whinnery discovered the wrecker on the Jersey-Ridge road.

Just two minutes later at 7 a.m., Raymond Weingart, assistant manager of Kroger, discovered the missing safe when he made ready to open the store.

Even at 5:45 a.m., some 20 minutes after residents heard glass being broken, other rural residents noticed a safe dangling from the tow truck on the Butcher Road. By the time the deputies arrived, the safe was gone.

Man Hurt As Car Rams Into Train

Charles Fisher of RD 1, Kensington, is in good condition at Alliance City Hospital after his car crashed into an east-bound Pennsylvania train early this morning at a crossing four miles east of Minerva on Route 30.

According to two unidentified witnesses, the flasher signals were working when Fisher rammed his automobile into a box car. The railroad car was derailed and traffic was held up until the cars could be uncoupled.

Fisher suffered multiple cuts and bruises.

Rev. Armstrong to Serve as Missionary

The Rev. Roy W. Armstrong, pastor of the Assembly of God Tabernacle for the past four years, has resigned to serve as a missionary in the Philippines.

The appointment was made by the Foreign Missions Department of the Assemblies of God, with headquarters in Springfield, Mo.

Rev. Armstrong, with his wife, Jean, and daughter, Danielle Ann, will be stationed at Angeles, Pampanga Province, where he will have the oversight of the Assemblies of God church and the fast-growing work among the aborigines.

He will also be ministering to American servicemen stationed at Clark Air Force Base.

Rev. Armstrong attended Central Bible Institute in Springfield, Mo. He has been in the ministry in Ohio since 1950, serving churches in Greenville, Canton and Salem.

At present, Rev. Armstrong is visiting various churches of the Assemblies of God, raising funds to enable him to take up missionary work in the Philippines.

Rev. Armstrong will conduct his farewell service Sept. 14 at 10:45 a.m. A missionary service is planned for that evening at 7:45.

He will also be ministering to American servicemen stationed at Clark Air Force Base.

Religion At Work

By EUGENE CARR

On to College

If your son or daughter is going to college this fall, no doubt you have some fears as to the moral influences to which he or she may be subjected while away from home. Such fears on the part of parents are only natural.

But any fear you may have in this respect will be reduced greatly if you will urge the young man or woman student in your family to take advantage of the religious training offered by the college and become active in the church organizations to be found on most college campuses.

Never in history has the interest in religion, by students and faculty alike, been at such a high level. And this interest definitely is founded on a sincere search for the true meaning of life and the place of religion in it. It is not an emotional or social outlet; it springs from all segments of the campus population.

A RECENT SURVEY tells us that student demand for courses in religious

How to Avoid Catastrophes in Life

More than 18 years have passed since the dramatic evacuation of the British army from the beaches of Dunkirk.

It is difficult how to recall the feeling of desperation that swept the free world at the time, but we can recover the mood of that fateful hour in Winston Churchill's great books concerning World War II: "There was a short service of intercession and prayer in Westminster Abbey," he wrote. "The English are loth to express their feelings, but in my stall in the choir I could feel the pent-up, passionate emotion, and also the fear of the congregation, not of death or wounds or material loss, but of defeat and the final ruin of Britain."

Dr. Peale

It was at this point that the man who eventually became Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander was given command of the retreating British troops at Dunkirk. General Alexander was looking over the all but desperate situation on the ground when a colonel came dashing up to him, saluted and reported, "General, our position is catastrophic!"

Alexander looked calmly at the man, then dismissed him with such comment as this: "Don't use such big words, Colonel. Just get busy and get some boys out of here!"

WELL, AS WE ALL KNOW, not only soldiers, sailors and airmen, but ordinary citizens as well, responded to the national crisis. More than 330,000 troops were taken from Dunkirk harbor and off the beaches in everything from canoes to warships—and the situation was saved from catastrophe. Crises and possible catastrophe are ever potential problems in life. You can save yourself from catastrophes in your own experience by, first of all, never admitting excitedly to yourself or to others that your position is catastrophic. And no crisis will become catastrophe if you but remember six things:

1. DON'T PANIC. Never panic. Keep relaxed and calm; try to keep tension out of your nervous system. Don't let panic make your mind hot when it needs most of all to be cool. For only a cool mind can think, and in a crisis you must enable yourself to think creatively. Pray to Almighty God until you calm down and then quietly do something about your situation.

2. Never over-dramatize a situation. That is exactly what the nervous colonel was doing when he reported to General Alexander. Just study the facts, one by one simplifying each, and you'll cut them down to a size that will not frighten you.

3. Don't spend any time on regrets, but take the situation from where you are. Don't ask yourself why you ever got into this position. Just get busy figuring how to get out of it, and do that, one step at a time. You don't need to find the whole solution all at once. Do what you can now. Other insights will come later.

4. When you've taken that all-important first step, don't hurry into a second one. This is a good time at which to pray some more and ask for guidance step by step. Pray your way out, insight by insight.

5. Never take any step without asking yourself—and asking God— if what you are doing is the right thing to do ethically and spiritually. A fundamental principle is this: You can never go wrong doing right. Ask and answer this question: "What is right?" Then do it.

AND LAST, but far from least, never give up. Never admit you're licked. When news of the crisis at Dunkirk came to Churchill, he called a meeting of his ministers.

The first thing he said to them was, "Of course, whatever happens at Dunkirk, we shall fight on."

The reaction to his statement was amazing; there has never been such a demonstration at a cabinet meeting. "A white glow, overpowering, sublime," wrote Churchill, "ran through our island from one end to end." And Britain avoided catastrophe.

Keep such a white glow, overpowering, sublime, alive in your own heart and you will avoid the catastrophes that threaten you in life.

For many it is their first great venture into the world of responsibility and temptation. It is a crucial year... and they live it in a community all their own, surrounded by the teeming millions of a great city!

An important part of their life is the Christian Association, augmenting the programs of the campus churches. There are wholesome social activities, challenging discussion groups, services of worship, opportunities for community service.

Here, as on almost every college campus, the Church is on the job. Its specially-trained leaders are guiding our sons and daughters in their adjustment to college life and the complicated world of opportunity and danger.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A Helping Hand to Youth

The Salem Youth Center, more commonly referred to by Salem high school age boys and girls as the Canteen, is embarking on its fifth successful season.

Sponsored by the Rotary Club, which finances the Center to the tune of $1,200 annually, the quarters in the Memorial Building have provided evenings of wholesome recreation for teenagers who needed just such a place to get together.

Last year, for example, 420 were enrolled as Youth Center members. The roster this season will be equally as large, predicts Adult Supervisor Joseph Boone, a junior high school teacher who holds down the only paid job at the Center.

The Canteen is run by the youths themselves, governed by their board of directors, although an adult board looks in and also watches from a distance. The rules are simple and good conduct is absolutely essential. Members sign in and sign out in case any parent might want to check.

Joe Boone is high in his praise of the youngsters' exemplary conduct. They've always been a bunch of good kids enjoying their own companionship. There's a game room, snack bar, separate lounges for boys and girls, and a dance floor.

The youths pick their own board of directors, with a seventh being elected by the High School Student Council. On the senior board are two parents, a minister, a representative of the Women's Federation, a trustee of the Memorial Building and two members of the Rotary Club.

Operating on a three nights a week basis, the Salem Youth Center has proved beyond a doubt that it is a worthy community project. The Rotary Club and others associated with it have done a creditable job to keep Salem youths from becoming delinquents.

Not a Rocket, Not a Tank, Just a Ruble

All the surmises and rumors about Russia's economic attack are brought under one magnifying glass for inspection by Waldemar A. Nielsen in the new Harper's.

Soviet production, he points out, is now large enough to brack up major maneuvers in the markets of the world. The purpose of the maneuvers is to destroy the ability of the customer to resist Communism.

The U.S. foreign aid program, on the other hand, aims to strengthen the customer's ability to resist Communism, not for the purpose of converting him to the American way but to keep him from being converted to the Russian way. In this kind of an unequal contest, Russia holds a great advantage.

By spending a few rubles at the right instant to relieve some special economic pressure, it can win more gratitude than the United States can hope to win in a decade by systematic aid. It is a technique borrowed from Germany under Hitler.

"If the community of nations could not define and stop 'aggression' in situations like Hungary and Lebanon," Nielsen inquires, "how the identify and punish the crime in far more subtle cases like an explosive bulk-buying deal or an arms shipment? Traditionally, aggression was an act. Now it has become a continuous process, moving by almost imperceptible degrees, beyond the reach of sanctions. This discovery—combined with the new facts about the Soviet military, technical and economic capacity—has had a profound effect on Russian strategy. . . . The active battleground in the coming phase of the Cold War will be the uncommitted, underdeveloped countries, and the principal weapons of attack will be trade, oil and technical assistance."

As to capacity, Nielsen merely points out that in the first quarter of 1958, the Sino-Soviet bloc produced more steel than did the United States. Of course, the United States had a great capacity it was not using at the time. But for the first time, the Soviet Union and Red China had a great capacity they were using to the hilt, and Russia's

The American Federation For Protection of Wild Guessers has joined in battle against all quiz show investigations. Hundreds of quiz shows would be ruined if answers came even close to being correct, they contend.

"There are millions of chronic addicts who feel no shame when exposed as ignorant on TV. It is their right. Being seen on TV is what counts, not the performance," declares Mrs. T. Jarvis Doodlebug an official of above league.

"Shouldn't a few right answers be given those housewives who lose minks because they can't spell two two-syllable words or state what country Ohio is in?" he asked.

"Never she said. 'They belong to our organization and have built up life reputations for being pretty dumb. They would never endure having reputations destroyed at this late date.'"

"Are there any tests of contestants before run-of-mill quiz shows?" she was asked.

"The federation has its own committee which interviews contestants to make certain they don't know much," she replied. "We ask such questions as 'Is Grand Canyon a region, a new soup or a movie actor?' and 'In what nation was Bunker Hill fought?' If a contestant has the foggiest notion we reject her."

ON A RECENT ONE of the 5,678,923 quiz shows going on morning, afternoon and night, a college senior knew who John Paul Jones was and followed this up by giving the first name of a traitor named Arnold. We told Mrs. Doodlebug about this and asked if he was being investigated by the D.A.

CURRENT MYSTERY is why Buddy Hackett, actor, bought the heavily portected palatial hideout of a noted gangster. We like his work and see no reason why he should lack confidence in his new TV series nor wants a personal fortress. Art Carney, who is being succeeded by him on the Gleason show, has no violent intentions. Jackie Gleason is sure Hackett will need no high wall defenses. The previous owner was bumped off in a barber shop, but Hackett has no fears on this account. He shaves himself.

John Hay Whitney, buyer of Herald Tribune control, is a colorful figure in many fields. In the last world war he leaped from a speeding train to elude his Nazi pursuers. But is there any braver leap these days than into the hectic newspaper business? "For the past year I have been evaluating the paper's needs, outlook, problems and future role," says Whitney.

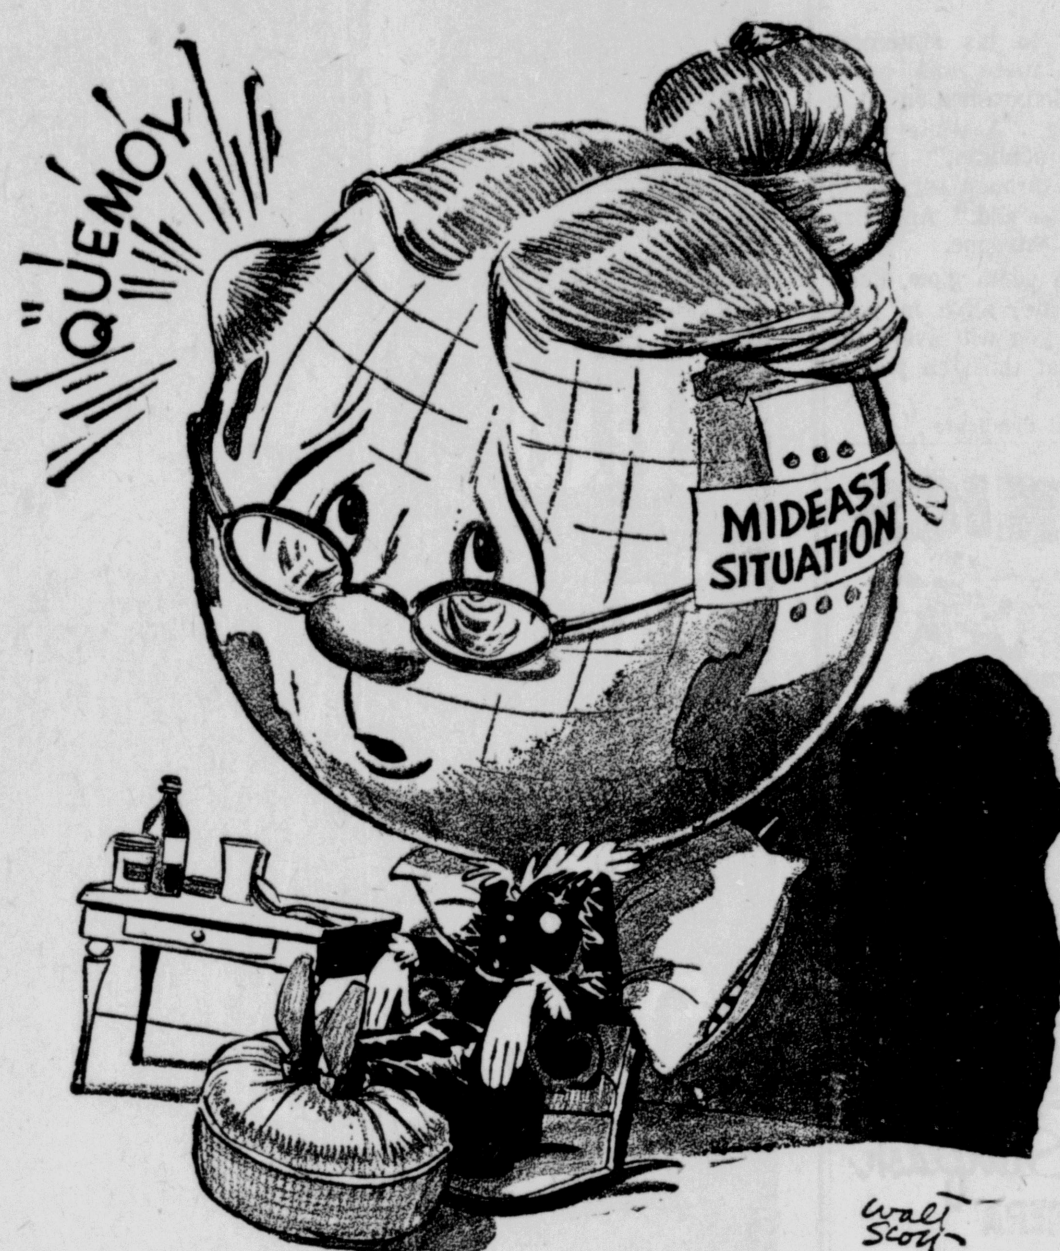

Four Times Square auctioneers are suing New York City to get back revoked licenses. Do you suppose their lawyer, upon being asked to make a fight, began with "What am I offered?" Or that the court will open the session with "Now folks, I have here this genuine hnadmade, 48-carat legal issue?"

Cadillac chief says 25,000 orders for new models are already in. There are Caddie owners who never hold a car after one ashtray gets full.

Fur Head Mounters Association has been enjoined on the charge of violating the anti-trust laws says a news item. This baffled us. We had never heard of such an association. Our guess was that it was a union of barbers specializing on pianists hair, a league of furry wrestlers famed for headlock holds or a bunch of moose hunters who pose sitting on antlers of a big one. But it turns out to be a trade association of people who mount those fox, squirrel, and sable heads on women's fur pieces.

Ike's Integration Theme

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — That President Eisenhower has finally said he thinks public school integration should go slower is no surprise to anyone who has carefully examined his news conference statements over the past 2½ years.

His whole theme — although he never flatly said so until Wednesday — has been that this is a slow process. He's talked of patience, of educating people on the issues, and said laws can't change the hearts or prejudices of people.

But what came as a surprise was the time he chose to say publicly that he thinks the Supreme Court's order to end public school segregation should be carried out at an even slower pace than it's going.

Only eight days ago — when the Little Rock school integration case was still in the hands of a lower court — Eisenhower said he did not want to comment on a case pending in the courts.

But his statement Wednesday about slower integration came one day before the Supreme Court was to hear arguments on whether integration at Little Rock's Central High School should be resumed or delayed.

A reporter quoted Newsweek magazine as saying Eisenhower had told friends he thought integration should slow down. Asked if that was correct, the President said he might have told someone that.

However, Eisenhower denied another part of the magazine story that quoted him as saying privately he wishes the high court had never handed down its 1954 decision declaring public school integration unconstitutional.

Never throughout news conferences — going back to February 1956 — has he given any sign that he had any clear plan for enforcing the Supreme Court's order.

He's repeatedly mentioned talking to educators, clergymen and occasional governors he met about the need to get people to understand the problem of integration and obeying the Supreme Court.

He's refused repeatedly to say whether he thinks the court's order was good or right.

All he's ever really said about his intentions was that he had taken an oath to enforce the laws. At one time — Sept. 11, 1956 — he seemed to think he himself couldn't do anything; that the job was up to U.S. marshals.

That day he said: "The federal government is not allowed to go into any state unless called upon by the governor who must show that the governor is unable with the means at his disposal to preserve order."

And on July 17, 1957, Eisenhower said: "I can't imagine any set of circumstances that would ever induce me to send federal troops into a federal court and into any area to enforce the orders of a federal court, because I believe the common sense of America will never require it."

But a couple of months later — when Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus used National Guard troops to block a court order to integrate Central High School — Eisenhower sent in federal troops — not at Faubus' request, but over his protests.

It will long be argued whether Faubus ever would have used the guardsmen or blocked integration if Eisenhower on July 17 — instead of giving the impression he'd never use troops — had said he'd use them when and where necessary.

Eisenhower apparently didn't even know on July 17, 1957, whether he could use troops, for he told his news conference that day: "Now, there may be that kind of authority resting somewhere, but I certainly am not seeking any additional authority of that kind, and I would never believe that it would be a wise thing to do in this country."

But after the Little Rock experience and while federal troops were still there, Eisenhower — on May 14, 1958 — was asked if he'd send troops into other states if necessary to compel obedience to a court order. He said: "Now, I don't know. I am not going to try to predict what the exact circumstances in any other cases will be."

On Aug. 6, 1958, Eisenhower, reminded that another school year was approaching, was asked if he had any plans for personal action to head off tension by such means as talks, statements or special instructions to the Justice Department.

He said: "Well, I haven't planned at this moment any particular speeches. . . . I believe we have got to look inside ourselves." And, returning to the theme he has stressed, he said: "Mere law will never solve this problem."

Communists Like to Create Embarrassing Episodes

Just as the Communists have had a hand in fomenting riots and bombing in the Southern States of this country, they now have managed to accentuate racial friction in Great Britain.

Occasional clashes between Negroes and whites have occurred before in England but the events of the last fortnight show a pattern of stimulated conflict that fits in with the Communist tactics in other parts of the world.

The usual technique is to seize upon any antagonisms and bring in agitators to aggravate the tensions. What has before been a dormant issue suddenly becomes explosive.

The Communist apparatus doesn't work directly in such situations. It operates through intermediaries. Thus, the persons who are involved first hand in the riots are, as a rule, unaware of the methods by which they have been inflamed.

This is not a new mode of warfare. It was practiced with telling effect in foreign countries by the Nazis prior to World War II.

It is not easily detected. One reason is that the infiltrators work through "right wing" as well as "left wing" organizations. Their principal aim is to intensify already troublesome situations and it doesn't require an army of agents to kindle a fire where the sparks are smoldering.

THE HISTORY of the British riots fits in with the happenings elsewhere. At first there are public speakers who agitate under the protection of freedom of speech doctrines. Few people are aware of what's going on. The newspapers don't notice it in the early stages. Then, when the issue is fully expounded, persons who display a fanaticism on the subject appear on the scene. It doesn't take long to develop a mob spirit.

In this country, the House Committee on un-American activities has uncovered instances of Communist instigation of riots and bombings in the South in connection with the "segregation" controversy.

Organizations concerned with the defense of Negro rights find themselves indignantly denying that any of their members are Communists and openly repudiating such influences. So do the Ku Klux Klan leaders deny any communist connection. But such organizations themselves are unable always to detect the means by which outside influences work their way into their ranks.

If the Communist apparatus wants, for instance, to plant an idea in the mind of "left wing" spokesmen — a senator or a representative — or a newspaper editor — the last person ever selected for such a mission would be a known or suspected Communist.

The procedure usually is to stir up the "left wing" organizations and encourage them to send emissaries to carry on the battle. The same issues might have been espoused anyway, but normally it would take a much longer time—sometimes years—to bring them to a climax.

ONE OF THE BIGGEST aids given to the Communists comes from those who can be counted on to pooh-pooh it all.

A significant illustration of this appeared in connection with the recent demonstrations against Vice President Nixon in Latin America. There was a tendency in some quarters in this country to belittle the Communist part in the whole affair or to pass it off as having no Communist connection.

Actually there has always been anti-American feeling of some kind in Latin America, but the people there are by nature much too polite to demonstrate in the manner reported during the Nixon trip. The Communists however, knew long in advance that the vice president was coming. They prepared to arouse the students in the universities—a favorite point of contact—and the plot worked.

The similarity of the signs and placards used by the Communists in "demonstrations" in various countries gives away the game. The language of anonymous phone calls in connection with the bombing of a Negro school and a Jewish Synagogue in Jacksonville, in April of this year was the jargon of the dedicated Communist.

The formal report of the grand jury investigating a bombing during race troubles in the Louisville area in 1954 pointed out that "this case seems to follow a pattern used by the Communist party to create trouble between the respective races in this country."

THE COMMUNISTS are astute enough to utilize race or religious differences to their advantage. Who, it might be asked, pays for all the literature against religious groups distributed throughout the world and also for the agitation carried on by selected speakers who link those religious groups with governmental policy in the United States, the Middle East and elsewhere?

It's all part of the design of the Communists who do their damage by working inside both factions in every controversy, whether it's in Cyprus or Algeria or India or Egypt or Malaya or the Philippines or Japan.

There's scarcely a country in the world in which the Communist apparatus isn't secretly at work stirring up trouble.

Thus the fomenting of race riots in Britain was a "natural" for the Communists.

They are bent on creating embarrassing episodes and causing friction inside the British Parliament by arousing the colored peoples living under British colonial rule in Asia and Africa and in British Commonwealth countries.

When Art Imitates

By TRUMAN TWILL

Nothing could have startled me less than the fuss about TV quiz shows.

My sympathy is with the producers, who have been put on the defensive by an allegation that at least one contestant was not entirely on his own while the viewing public was tuned in on him.

This would mean, if true, that the producers had been caught in the modern trap of keeping up whatever appearance is expected. Art does not imitate life any more; it imitates itself.

Television, which is a kind of mirror process anyway, is peculiarly susceptible to the temptation to make things appear the way the audience expects them to appear.

Take Indians, for example. Indians appear on TV as seminaked characters who emit a strange yipping sound while riding down slopes on spotted ponies into the jaws of death. Or, if the script does not call for them to be killed right away, they ride across the skyline in picturesque silhouettes. Stupid as the Indians must have been to let white scoundrels run them off, they never were as stupid as they appear on television. But the public wants them to be that way, because that is the way they always have been.

This is the result of art imitating art — one of thousands. Examples are not limited to television. This is a nation of imitators. We do what we think we are expected to do and appear as we are expected to appear. Anyone who goes counter to the official concept is suspect.

Policemen are supposed to be curt, like Sarge Friday, or clever, like Sherlock Holmes. Businessmen are hard-bitten and realistic, like the prototype created in all novels.

Kids are expected to hate going to school, because that's the way it is in the all-American script. Teachers are supposed to look like a composite picture of a school-teacher, and if they don't they are looked at askance.

Girls are glamorous only if they look like the image of glamor created by Hollywood. The fact that men keep falling in love with women who do not look like that is a great puzzle to conformists, who murmur, "I don't understand what he sees in her."

Professors must be absent-minded because that is the image — the official conception. Magicians must be pompous. Preachers must be sanctimonious. Newspapers must be glib and cynical. Gangsters must be smoothies wearing snap-brim hats. Hoodlums must chew gum.

Sheriffs are taciturn. New houses have view windows. Automobiles have funny-looking fins on the fenders. Little girls have curly hair. Boys have crew-cuts. Women wear shorts in the summertime, even though their judgment tells them they are making a bad mistake.

Salesmen are glib, athletes walk erect, truck drivers have hairy chests, telephone operators talk like robots, top sergeants are illiterate, bookkeepers are mousy, fallen women are blowsy, agriculturalists talk like refugees from "Way Down East" and Southerners talk as if they were regurgitating turnip greens. And quiz-show contestants are incredibly well informed, besides being phenomenally equipped to dredge up answers on a minute's notice.

That's the way it's supposed to be — not the way it is. But when art imitates art, nothing is the way it is. No one would stand for it.

White Sox Come From Behind to Edge Indians 4-3

Score Is Loser In Relief Role

Doby Cracks 2-Run Homer In Fourth

CLEVELAND (AP)—The home cooking is lousy.

That about sums up the Cleveland Indians three-game losing streak. All the defeats were suffered since the Tribe returned home Wednesday to start their final stand at Municipal Stadium this season.

The latest was a 4-3 setback to the Chicago White Sox Friday night in which Herb Score was tagged with the loss in a relief role.

Score relieved starter Don Mossi with runners on second and third and one out in the seventh inning. The Indians were ahead 3-1 on Larry Doby's two-run homer head and both runners scored to Doby.

Sherm Lollar came up to pinch hit for Chicago starter Early Wynn, the former Indian right-hander. Lollar drove a liner to left which soared over Minnie Minoso's head and both runners score to tie the score 3-3.

Jim Lanis then singled to left, scoring Lollar with the run that decided it.

Wynn, with the help of three scoreless innings from Jim Wilson, picked up his 13th victory to go with the same number of setbacks. It was his fourth victory over his former mates without a loss since being traded to the White Sox over the winter.

Al Smith, another ex-Indian who went to the White Sox in the Wynn trade which brought Minoso to Cleveland, homered in the fourth inning to give Chicago a 4-1 lead.

Doby's two-run homer, his 12th of the season, in the fourth following a walk to Vic Power, put Cleveland in front 2-1.

Singles by Mossi and Doby made it 3-1 in the fifth.

Witt Blanks Braves on 5 Hits; Viridon Homers in Tenth Inning

(By The Associated Press)

The Milwaukee Braves may have run away from the National League pennant, but they're getting no where fast against rookie right-hander George Witt of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The champs have had two runs with the kid from Laguna Beach, Calif., and haven't scored a run off him yet.

Witt, 24, became the first to hang two shutouts on the Braves this season, by beating Milwaukee 1-0 Friday night with a five-hitter and Bill Viridon's leadoff home run in the 10th inning.

Witt's only other work against the Braves was a two-hit, 10-0 shutout August 12.

By out-scraping Carl Willey, Witt hoisted the Bucs back into a second place tie with San Francisco, 8½ games behind the Braves. The Giants were idle by rain at Chicago.

Cincinnati rapped Philadelphia 8-4, and Los Angeles, held to three hits, defeated St. Louis 2-1 in the other NL games.

In the American League, Washington defeated first place New York 6-3; the Chicago White Sox beat Cleveland 4-3, Boston clobbered Baltimore 10-2 and Detroit knocked off Kansas City 4-1.

Pitching for the first time in nine days because of an inflamed elbow, Witt walked four and struck out three, fanning Willey for all of them. Willey (9-5), who gave seven hits and walked four but left nine on base, struck out five, whiffing Witt four times.

The Dodgers got all their hits in the second inning off loser Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell, Fred Kipp (6-4) won it with relief help, giving up the run in the second on three of the Cards' seven hits and an infield out.

Don Newcombe (6-11) won his fourth in a row, giving up nine of the Phils' dozen hits and beating Robin Roberts (14-13) for the second time in five days with Brooks Lawrence's relief help.

Columbiana Ties

Quakers Beaten; Bears, Indians, East Liverpool Preview Winners

A 23-play, 90-yard march in which a pass interference ruling made a difference spelled defeat for the Salem gridiron Quakers

Friday night at East Liverpool as they were nipped by a bunch of Lisbon Blue Devils 6-0 in the annual preview clash played before some 7,000 pairs of eyes.

In other games, Leetonia beat United 14-0, Salineville downed Beaver Local 12-6, Columbiana and Toronto played to a 0-0 tie and East Liverpool beat Wells-ville 8-6.

Salem and Lisbon each had the ball twice during the 16-minute game and winners made the most of one of their opportunities in coping the verdict.

Toward the end of the first period Lisbon was penalized 15 yards for holding and five more for taking too much time. It put the ball on their 16 yard line. Two running plays moved it to the 25.

Here Denny Reese threw a pass to Lenny McLaughlin around mid-field. A Salem defender was called for interference and Lisbon has a first down.

They kept the ball then an aided by a 22-yard burst by Brooks managed to move the pigskin to the Salem two-yard line where Lisbon quarterback Reese snub over from six-foot out.

McLaughlin's extra point try via a placement failed.

LISBON had kicked off to commence activities with Ralph Ehrhart following a six-man wedge from his 15 to the 44, Lou Slaby and his fellow co-captain then alternated carries and mixed in with a single effort by Fred Phillips, transported the ball to the Lisbon 10. A 15-yard infraction against the Blue Devils for unsportsmanlike conduct was conclusive to the sustained march also.

At the Blue Devil 10 yard marker, Salem was held on downs. Here Lisbon took the ball and mixed with a conglomeration of offensive tidbits moved the sphere across the Salem goal in 23 plays for the game's decisive touchdown.

Salem had one other chance to score following Lisbon's production of a half-dozen points.

Slaby, Ehrhart and Mr. Phillips combined their running maneuvers to carry the ball from their 37 to the Lisbon 12. However, a back field fumble ruined the Red and Black's chance for a tie or better.

Lisbon then ran out the clock. Ned Chappell, a left tackle, did not play for the locals last night. He was nursing a swollen left arm.

LISBON out first-downed Salem 7-5 and had more yards rushing, 97-81, primarily because they had the ball for 27 plays and Salem for 17.

aerial while Lisbon threw one aerial while Lisbon threw one which proved very valuable.

Lisbon was guilty of 35 yards worth of infractions and Salem none.

Neither club punted. Salem played a 7-1-2 defense most of the way while Lisbon was in an 8-3 or 5-2-2.

BOB OSTERLING was the whole show as Leetonia blanked United 14-0. Osterling made all the Bears' points on a 59-yard run, a 12 yard jaunt and a three-yard effort on an extra point.

Leetonia scored in four plays following the opening kickoff when Osterling found a big hole and scampered 59 yards.

Brewer Sets Down Baltimore On 4 Singles As Bosox Win

(By The Associated Press)

Tom Brewer, one of the pitchers Boston hoped would provide a chance at the American League pennant, finally has come around to perk up the Red Sox' closing shot for second place.

The lean right-hander, just turned 27, didn't get started until after the All-Star game, when the Red Sox were already a dozen games behind first place New York After winning 35 games in 1956-57, Brewer had won only three of 10 decisions for the first three months of the season.

Now, with the Sox running only a game and a half behind second place Chicago, Brewer has won six straight and seven of his last eight decisions.

Brewer padded his record to 11-10 Friday night, setting down Baltimore on four singles as Boston belted the Birds 10-2.

Washington blew a 3-0 lead, but beat the Yankees 6-3, the White Sox got past Cleveland 4-3 and Detroit rapped Kansas City 4-1 in the other AL games.

In the National League, rookie George Witt allowed but five hits as Pittsburgh defeated first place Milwaukee 1-0 in 10 innings. Los Angeles defeated St. Louis 2-1 and Cincinnati beat Philadelphia 8-4. San Francisco and the Chicago Cubs were rained out.

The Senators made it when Yankee relief ace Ryne Duren, now 6-4, walked in three runs with two out in the ninth. Roy Sievers' 35th home run and Albie Pearson's third, a two-run shot, gave the Nats their early lead against 20-game winner Bob Turley. But Russ Kemmerer, who had a no-hitter for five innings, finally was chased in the eighth, when the Yanks scored two for a tie. Dick Hyde (10-3) was the relief winner, and now has figured in more than half of Washington's 56 victories.

A pinch, two-run double by Sherm Lollar and a winning single by Jim Landis brought the White Sox from behind in the seventh inning against losing reliever Herb Score (2-3). Early Wynn (13-13) was the winner for a 4-0 record against his old mates.

The Tigers scored three runs in the first on Al Kaline's 14th homer and Frank Bolling's two-run double. Paul Foytack (12-11) then breezed with a five-hitter, winning three straight for the first time this season. Ned Garver (11-10) was the loser.

Wynn Hawkins Paces Reading Over York

Crafty pitching by control artist Wynn Hawkins of near by New Waterford enabled the Reading Indians to remain in the red hot Eastern League pennant race as they beat York 5 to 3.

Hawkins allowed but seven hits and gave up one walk. He also blasted a three-base hit which helped spark a Reading rally.

Basilio Blasts Art Aragon

Fight Stopped After Eight Bloody Rounds

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"Sure I

wanna fight Sugar Ray Robinson again—but only if the money is right," said tough little Carmen

Basilio after pounding dapper Art

Aragon into a bloody, reeling derelict in eight savage rounds.

"I can fight either Robinson or

Virgil Akins, but Robinson has to fight me," said Basilio, who knocked Aragon loose from everything but his celebrated sense of humor Friday night.

"Is this guy Basilio really a welterweight?" asked the badly out Golden Boy in mock disbelief

as he sat in his dressing room, sipping beer.

Truman Gibson, head of the International Boxing Club, said Robinson has agreed to defend the middleweight title he lifted from Basilio last March.

Aragon showed the Wrigley

Field crowd of 22,500 and a national television audience he had plenty of heart but not the guns to stop the relentlessly punching

Chittenango, N.Y., boxer.

The gross gate of $236,521.10 set a California record.

Basilio, former welterweight as well as former middleweight champion, opened with his jungle-style attack and didn't let up until

Referee Tommy Hart pulled him from the battered Aragon at 1:27 of the eighth.

Hart moved just as Aragon's corner threw in a towel, traditional symbol of ring defeat.

"I didn't ask for the fight to be stopped," said Aragon, "but I didn't want to go 12 rounds with him, either." It was the first knockout in Aragon's 103-fight career.

Under California rules, the fight is ruled a knockout even though the referee didn't count Aragon

out. Such a ruling is permitted

when a referee decides one fighter is hopelessly beaten.

judge warned that if FBI agents investigate his court and its actions "in any high-handed and menacing manner I will not hesitate to put them in the common jail of the county."

Judge Waler I. Geer issued the statement at his Colquitt home after learning federal officials had filed a civil rights suit against three Terrell County voter registrars and two deputy registrars he had appointed.

The suit—first test of the 1957 civil rights act—charged the registrars with discriminating against prospective Negro voters in the Terrell County seat of Dawson, in south Georgia.

The judge termed the suit "arrogant, unwarranted and high-handed." Then, acting on a request from the registrars, he ordered them not to furnish any documents under their control to federal agencies unless they are ordered by a court for use as evidence.

Early this week it was announced that Eisenhower would return to Washington today to be host at a late afternoon White House reception for a group of American, British and Canadian college educators—members and guests of the American Assn. of Universities.

Later he booked meetings with Secretary of Commerce Weeks and Secretary of Labor Mitchell, and a goodbye visit with his economic adviser, Dr. Gabriel Hague, who has resigned to return to private business.

The President also arranged a White House luncheon conference, on the Far East situation and other matters, with Secretary of State Dulles.

uties got there at 6:20, it was gone.

The store was not equipped with a window alarm which would have been set off as the yeggs made off with the 4,000-pound safe which measured six feet in height and three feet in width and length.

Weingart said last night was the first Friday evening in five weeks that a night shift had not worked to prepare for Saturday's store trade.

Deputy Gray said he made a check of the store at 1:30 a.m. today but noticed nothing amiss.

Perry Township Constable John H. Herman Jr. said he checked the store at 9:40 p.m. and at 11:18 p.m. Friday and at 12:15 a.m. today and everything was in order.

Weingart told deputies that around 8 p.m. Friday he noticed a suspicious looking 1956 light green model car with three men in it watching him load money into the safe.

It was the second robbery at a local super market in Salem in 11 months. Last Oct. 17, A&P Store Manager John Martin was robbed of about $700 as he returned from the bank.

Yeggs previously had tried to steal the safe from the A. & P. market on S. Lundy Ave. after breaking into the store but, apparently, were frightened away.

The store was found open and the office partitions torn apart and a heavy rope tied about the safe.

Chou En-Lai

Americans held in Red China and other issues. When most of the Americans were released, the talks switched to other issues between the two nations, including a U. S. demand for a pledge by Red China not to use force in the Formosa Strait area.

Four Americans are still in prison in Red China.

After the 73rd meeting last December, the talks adjourned with no future meetings set. Ambassador Johnson later was transferred to another post and Edwin W. Martin, first secretary of the U. S. Embassy in London, was appointed temporary U.S. representative.

In April, the Red Chinese charged that this was a U.S. trick to stall off further talks. It demanded that the United States point a diplomat of ambassadorial rank to resume the talks.

After the breakup in December, the United States was reported to have offered to resume the talks. This was in January. These reports said the United States wanted a Communist pledge not to use force to take Formosa out of Chinese Nationalist control.
